

Reporting on my learning for the middle of the year: Reading
Student Reflection 2016

Name:

Year level:

My level in reading is:

Handwritten scribbles and a large red '5' in the top right corner.

Here is a picture of something I can do well in reading.

I can point to the words.

Here is another picture of something else I can do well in reading.

I sound out the words.

My next step in reading is.

Thinking about the letters that look different.

Learning Heroes! Which learner disposition helps me when I read?

Reflective - I think about the words I read!

Reporting on my learning for the middle of the year: Writing
Student Reflection 2016

Name:

John Dyer

Year level:

8g 8h

I am on the tractor in writing.

Here is a picture of something I can do well in writing.

Remembering my letters

Here is another picture of something else I can do well in writing.

Writing more than one sentence

My next step in writing is...

Not good at remembering letter Hh.

Learning Heroes! Which learner disposition helps me when I write?

Resilient because I don't give up.

Student Reflection 2016

Name:

Toriya

Year level:

1.

I am on stage:

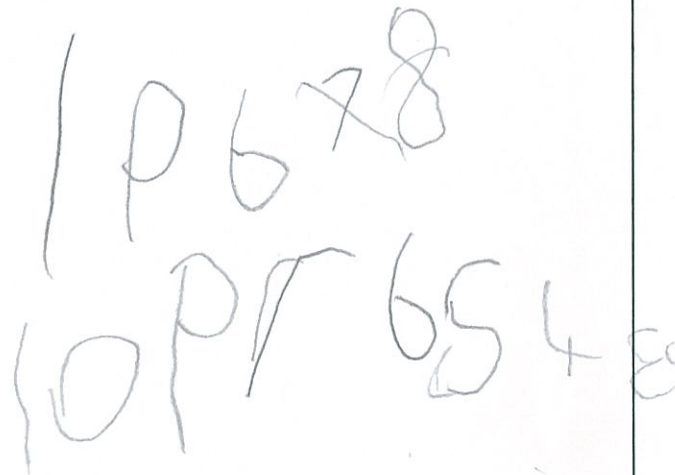

2-3

Here is a picture of something I can do well in maths.

At adding Numbers.

Here is another picture of something else I can do well in maths.

Counting backwards.

My next step in maths is...

Counting higher than 100.

Learning Heroes! Which learner disposition helps me when I do maths?

Resourceful - Using tools to help me, like a dice.